Judging Overview

1. Blind judging containers will be delivered to each participant at the 10am cooks meeting on Saturday. When you bring your entry to the judging area, the containers may only contain your entry.
2. Each team must prepare a minimum of six individual Rib-let servings for the KCBS judging.
3. Anything placed in the container that identifies your team will cause your entry to not be scored.
4. Blind judging will be held on B's patio or dining room.
5. All entries must be delivered to the judging location (B's patio) starting at 3:55 p.m. and no later than 4:05 p.m.
6. Any entry that arrives five minutes after the appointed check in time (4:05 p.m.) will not be scored.
7. Judges will be screened for competence to ensure that the quality of entry will be judged objectively based on the merits of the samples.
8. Guest tasting begins at 4:30pm. Each contestant will hand out rib-let samples to tasters who have purchased a tasting /*kit and have a rib ticket to trade for the sample. note: 1 sample per ticket.

Judging Criteria

1. Entries will be judged by a judging team of six judges. They will be scored in the areas of Appearance, Tenderness/Texture and Taste. The scoring system is 9 (Excellent) to 2 (bad). All whole numbers between 2 and 9 may be used to score an entry. The starting point is 6. A score of 1 is a disqualification and requires approval by the contest organizer.
2. Garnish is optional.
3. No sauce containers will be allowed in the turn-in box.
4. Product may be presented with or without sauce or seasonings.
5. Sauce or seasonings may not be pooled in the container. Any entry not complying with this rule will be given a 1 (one) on Appearance.
6. Marking or sculpting of any kind, of the meat or of the container, will not be allowed.
7. No aluminum foil or stuffing is allowed in the container.
8. No toothpicks, skewers, foreign material or stuffing is permitted. Any entry not complying with this rule will be given a 1 in all judging categories.
